

Our Vision: To be a growing, loving, caring and holistic church based on the word of God.

Our Mission: To be rooted in the Word to change the World

Bible Study Week 23-30 May 2021

Theme of the year: "Victory only through Faith and Obedience"

THEME: Self-examination of a righteous man

Job 31:1

I made a covenant with my eyes; how then could I look upon a virgin?

1. Kindly review the lessons learnt in Job chapter 1 and 2 and read chapter 31
 - a. What verses in Job chapter 1 and 2 highlight Job's character in relation to God's description of him in these chapters?
 - i. What words describe Job's seriousness of his righteous character in Job 31:1?
 - ii. What other things can we intentionally decide not to lust after?
 - iii. What lesson do you draw from Job 31:1 as a Christian who is steadfast in your faith?
 - iv. What is Job cautious of in Job 31:4, 5?
 - v. How does Job 31:9-12 speak to us?
 - b. What criteria is Job using to examine himself with His walk with God?
 - i. What do verse Job 15-19 reflect of Job's character?
 - ii. What godly virtues are listed in Job 31:16-21
 - iii. What other things that can be compared to verse Job 31:24 that give us false hopes and secretly entice us?
2. In comparison to Job 31:30; Why do you think that godly people need to restrain their tongues?
 - a. What are the dangers of not restraining our tongues as godly people?
3. What key godly virtues from Job's life do you think the church might be lacking today?
4. What key lessons do we learn from Job chapter 31?

Scripture Memorization:

Job 31: 17-18

-END